

OUR DAILY MAIL

[The Editor of THE LEDGER is not responsible for the opinions expressed by Correspondents; but nothing reflecting upon the character or habits of any person will be admitted to these columns.]

OUR AGENTS.

The following are authorized Agents for THE PUBLIC LEDGER in their respective localities:

Helena—Robert B. Cord.
Minerva—Frank W. Hawes.
Sardis—B. G. Grigsby.
Orangeburg—C. R. Ross.
Springdale—C. C. Deeman.
Maysville—Charles Wheeler.
Vanceburg—Mrs. Jennie Stewart.
Mt. Carmel—Kellie & Foxworthy.
Angula—Lester Tully.
Peel—Joseph W. Williams.

Subscribers will save the trouble of letter-writing by paying their subscriptions to the Agent at their place.

RECTORVILLE.

Farmers all busy.
Corn planting commenced.
The most of our sick are improving.
Several of our traders went to Flemingsburg Monday.
James Bell of Flemingsburg has been visiting relatives here.
The school children are preparing for an entertainment.
Mrs. J. L. Kirkland and son returned from Helena Sunday.

PEEL.

Farmers are busy planting corn.
C. W. Williams was in Maysville Monday and Tuesday.
Harvey Rawlins of Wakefield, Neb., is visiting relations in these parts.
Pickett, son of H. C. Hawkins, was taken seriously ill Monday, but is improving.
C. C. Williams received a considerable gash in his chin while haltering a mule. The mule kicked a rail, which hit him and did the mischief.

MILLWOOD.

R. B. & E. E. Cord's is the place to get anything you want.
Verner Early has been the guest of Jessie Calvert the past week.
Miss Nannie Roe of Helena is visiting relatives near Orangeburg.
Miss Tillie Weedon of Flemingsburg visited relatives here Saturday.
William Cook was in Mt. Carmel, Orangeburg and Maysville the past week.
D. T. Thomas and wife of Lexington have been the guests of W. Y. Wells and family.
Willie Kyle and Miss Mary Kain eloped to Aberdeen and were married by Squire Massie Beasley.
The Mite Society enjoyed a delightful time with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cook of Helena Saturday evening. They will meet with Mr. and Mrs. John Early next Saturday week in the evening.

MT. OLIVET.

Charles Daley and Will Heiser, Maysville wheelmen, spent Sunday in Mt. Olivet.
Thomas Ogden has opened his new dry goods store which is well stocked and very metropolitan in appearance.
James Morrison, proprietor of the Roller Mills, sent a dispatch to Richmond, Ind., Monday and received an answer in less than an hour, which wasn't bad considering. With a road—electric or steam—to Maysville, this will be one of the best country towns in the state.
The Robertson Sunday-school Union held its convention at the Walnut Street M. E. Church Sunday afternoon. Several enthusiastic speeches were made. Visitor E. S. Boswell of the State Sunday-school Union was present and aided in carrying on the work.
The organization of a Knights of Pythias Lodge at this place has been agitated for some time. In pursuance of an arrangement previously made, quite an enthusiastic meeting was held at the Courthouse on Saturday evening last. Grand Vice-Chancellor Chamberlain of the Grand Lodge was present and delivered a good speech. Messrs. Charles Wood, Will Rose, James Spencer, Wallace Howe and Sam Howe, Knights from Carlisle, came to assist. Mr. Ross made some practical remarks. Mr. Wood, who is a good talker, made an effective address, setting forth the merits of the Order. Thirteen names were signed to the petition for a charter. As fifteen is the requisite number, it is very probable that the remaining two will be obtained and the order established here.

To Our City Subscribers.
William O. Outten has charge of the delivery of THE LEDGER to all city subscribers, and he will make collection of the subscription accounts.

Orders should be given to him, or they may be left at the office for him.
Subscribers who do not receive their papers promptly are requested to report to the office.

Green all Through.

Mrs. Lizzie Wheeler, a Louisville lady, paid a Gypsy fortune teller a dollar to work a charm, and thereby lost $108. The Gypsy persuaded the lady to place $108 in a little green box and wrap it up in a dirty undergarment and turn her back and make a wish while she waved her hands over her to work the charm. While the lady's back was turned the Gypsy changed boxes and exacted a promise from the lady that she would not open the bundle for twenty-four hours. Mrs. Wheeler's wish was that she might be reunited with her husband, from whom she recently separated. She now wishes that she may be reunited with her $108, from which she more recently separated.

A Fayette County Farm.

Meadowthorpe Stock Farm, that was the property of W. H. Cheppu, was not sold to New York parties, as stated last week, but was bought by the well known distiller and breeder of thoroughbreds, Colonel James E. Pepper, whose celebrated distillery is only a half-mile from the Meadowthorpe residence. The price paid was the highest ever realized for a Bluegrass farm—$275 per acre. It is the intention of Col. Pepper to improve the property in a manner that will make this the most beautiful and convenient establishment in the world. On his famous Pepper Distillery premises is a magnificent quarry of Kentucky limestone, and from this he will secure enough stone to erect a magnificent castle that will be a wonder to the Bluegrass. The farm is already equipped for the breeding business, which the Colonel will continue, using the best strains of blood that can be found in America and England.
